Who's Who in the City Council

WILLIAM H. ADAMS.

William H. Adams, who has served for a number of years in the Board of Aldermen from Jefferson Ward, and who is the present chairman of the Committee on Streets, is a native of Richmond.

He is a prominent business man, being the proprietor of a large book-binding establishment.

Mr. Adams is looked upon as a conservative man both in business and in politics, having won his way to the front by close attention to whatever task might have been set before him.

He is one of the influential leaders of the upper branch of the City Legislature, and whenever matters arise which relate to the improvement of streets he is always to the front as an important factor.

In his first election, Mr. Adams defeated a man of great prominence for the Board, and since that time he has won without opposition either in or out of his own party.

and James Stringfellow, who have been traveling in England since July 1, greatly enjoying two weeks in London, are now in Paris. They will go from there to Switzerland, Germany and Scotland, returning about October 1.

Engagement Announced. Mrs. Charles Devoto, of 3102 East Marshall, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Sara, to J. Selden Hobson, the wedding to take place on Wednesday, August 18, at 5:45 P. M., in Mrs. Weisiger's home, 110 East Gray Street, in the presence of the immediate family.

Return From Abroad. Members of O. H. Berry's party have returned from a delightful summer spent in Rockbridge county, and reached Richmond last week.

Mr. Berry and Mr. Wilkinson spent most of their time at Carlisle, while others in the party, in charge of a private courier, visited many points of interest in England, France, Germany and Scotland. They sailed on the Baltic from Liverpool.

Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. Thomas Jardine and children, who have been visiting Mr. Jardine's relatives in Scotland, have been joined by him there, and will return shortly to Virginia.

Godwin Boykin is now making an automobile tour of Southern France with a party of friends, and will return to Richmond in November.

Notwithstanding the incongruity of the date—Friday, August 13—the young people of Hanover gave a most delightful informal dance in the courthouse last week, attended by a number of young girls and men, who went up from Richmond, among them Miss Emily Wade, Miss Mary Garrett, Miss Rebecca Courtney, Miss Harrison and Burford Burch, M. F. James, B. Pollard Cardozo, Robert Alsop, Addison and William Hagon, of this city, and Miss Ruth Campbell, of Yazoo City, Miss, Miss Ethel Howard, Miss Sarah Pondleton Cardwell, and Miss Elise Cardwell, of Ashland, Va.; Miss Mary Overton Haw, Miss Kitty Winston, Miss Mary Perkins and Mrs. Clarke, of Hanover; A. H. Cardwell, of Ashland; Olin Wortham, C. W. Taylor, Cardwell Taylor, Dr. Clarke, George Haw, Keith Taylor, Robert T. Winston, Dalton Taylor, Howard Taylor and John R. Winston.

At Massena. Mrs. Robert McCluer Paxton and Master Robert Paxton and Miss Callie Warwick Corling are at Massena Springs. Miss Corling will return by way of Lynchburg, and be the guest of Miss Virginia Hurt, in her bungalow on the James River, where a camping party is being held.

On Wednesday morning the residence of M. White Williamson, at New Market, Va., was the scene of a beautiful wedding when Miss Mabel Herford Williamson became the bride of William Keyser Price, the youngest son of the late Captain B. Z. Price. The prominence of the two families in Shenandoah county make the nuptials of unusual interest.

The Rev. Robert A. Gibson, Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia, performed the ceremony, and the bride was given away by her brother, Rush H. Williamson. Miss Williamson wore a cloth gown of satin of rose, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Mr. and Mrs. Keyser Price will be at home after August 30 at "River Lawn."

An interesting marriage was solemnized on August 12 at the residence of Mrs. Jefferson Davis Hyde, at Winterham, Va., when her niece, Miss Nellie May Baker, of Ambridge, Pa., became the bride of John Rodman Stewart, of New York City, formerly of Harrisburg, Pa.

The wedding will be a great surprise to the friends of the young couple, as it was scheduled for nearly a year hence. The bride came South to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, of Winterham. The groom came on a visit to his fiancée during his vacation, and a speedy marriage was the result. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Hill, the pastor of Arbor Baptist Church, and the only attendants were Miss Mary Sheppard and Miss Nellie, all of Winterham.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for New York City, their future home, followed by the congratulations and good wishes of the many friends they made while in Virginia.

Hillwood People at Lawn Fete. The beautiful home of Mrs. W. C. Petty, at Fork Union, Va., was the scene last week of quite an attractive lawn fete.

Charming taste was displayed in decorating the lawn, Japanese lanterns being profusely used.

The lawn fete was given by the visitors of Haverford, assisted by Misses George and Katherine Petty.

Among the Richmond people spending the season at Haverford are Mrs. C. B. Christopher, Mrs. L. C. Skelton, Misses Eva M. Brooke, Katherine Tolker, Ogil Skelton, Annie Smith, Beattie and Katherine Alsop, Annie Parrall and E. A. Vivas.

The invited guests were Misses Annie Clash, Vera Snead, May Snead, Edith Pettit, Annie Dunford and R. Whitehurst, R. Magruder, G. O. Perkins, P. J. Winn, Jr., Harry Snead, G. Snead, H. Snead, Mr. Richards, Gilmore Snead, H. Thomas, D. Sledd, D. Morris, A. Seay, K. Seay, Professor H. Snead, Ellis Snead, G. Snead, W. Tucker, C. Kie, Dr. H. Snead, T. Griffin, C. Anders and W. Pettit.

In and Out of Town. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hootnagle will leave early this week to spend some time at the Sweet Chalybeate and Old Sweet Springs.

Mrs. A. S. Word left Richmond Saturday, with Miss Louise and Nelson Word, to spend several weeks at Cape May.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Green and children, of Baltimore, have returned from a pleasant visit to Mrs. O. T. Gilliam.

Howard A. Gillis, of this city, is attending a house party being given near the Peaks of Otter.

Rev. and Mrs. Latham, after spending two weeks at the White Sulphur as guests of John P. Branch, are now at the summer home of Mrs. Latham's brother, Mr. Cross, near Ashcake, Va.

Miss Rebecca Courtney is visiting relatives in Caroline county.

Henry Pace was a recent visitor to Ocean View, spending a week pleasantly there.

Arthur Goddin is spending some time at the Mineral Hotel.

Miss Katharine Wrenn is having a charming stay in Rockbridge county. She and Miss McGraw, of this city, attended a dance given recently at the Heights, in Buena Vista.

Mrs. Corbin W. Mercer has gone for a two weeks' visit to relatives in Cherry Valley, New York.

Miss Mary Curtis Lee is a guest at "Signal Hill," the country home of Mrs. Betty B. Winston.
